

The Lath House at Heritage Park has never been as lively as it was on Saturday, March 22 for Tequilaaz, a tequila and mescal festival that had hundreds downing agave goodness and feasting on fare from local restaurants.

Easily the most interesting thing we consumed during the festival was the cucumber margarita from Cruz Tequila. As a general rule we shy away from non-textbook cocktails. Why knock something as classic as the margarita? Here's why: The cucumber margarita was absolutely delicious.
